On behalf of the Council of Biosciences Resources, we are pleased to announce the results of the May, 2009 call for proposals to fund core facilities in campus biosciences.

A total of 33 applications were received and reviewed in a Study Section (NIH) type process, with funds totaling $825,257 awarded to 20. Each application was reviewed and ranked by two members of the Bioscience Core Facilities Committee based on information provided in the application. The committee met in a panel session where each application was discussed and a final score was assigned. These recommendations were then forwarded to the Council of Bioscience Resources which convened to consider the Committee's recommendations and make funding decisions.

The core facilities which are funded under the Bioscience Core Facilities program this year are listed below.

A website has been established at www.bioscience.ucla.edu to serve as a portal for locating these and other shared bioscience research facilities on campus. We encourage you to visit the site, and provide feedback through the online survey and link to add or update services.
